

A NOTORIOUS BURGLAR DEAD.

HE WAS SHOT IN LANCASTER, PENN.—HIS NUMBEROUS ESCAPES FROM PRISON.

Police Superintendent Barnes yesterday sent to the police of Philadelphia an account of the life of Michael O'Connor, a desperate burglar, who died in a hospital in Philadelphia on Monday. In company with two other burglars, O'Connor tried to rob the office of the Hamilton Watch Company, at Lancaster, Penn., on the night of May 19, but the men were surprised by Samuel F. Bauer, the company's watchman, who fired several shots at them and wounded O'Connor and one of his companions. When O'Connor was taken to the hospital in Philadelphia, he gave the name of Joseph Mitchell, but after his death his body was claimed by his brother, Samuel O'Connor, who lives at No. 1,000 Third ave. in this city.

"O'Connor was a thief from boyhood," said Superintendent Barnes yesterday. "We arrested him in this city in 1888 after he had escaped from the Massachusetts State Prison, to which he had been sentenced for a burglary at Pittsfield, Mass. He was then sentenced to seven years' additional confinement on account of his escape, but it was not long before he was out of prison again. He and three other convicts made a tunnel under the wall and crawled through the hole. They went to Newcastle, Del., where they broke into a bank and overpowered Mr. Cooper, bank and post, but forgot to plan a way out, so O'Connor then fired two shots at Mr. Cooper, and both bullets went through his clothing but did not wound him. Then the burglars made their escape without stealing anything, and was arrested again. Later he was taken to Delaware and held for trial, but before he could be tried he managed to escape again."

TRANSFER OF T. C. AND I. STOCK.

Formal announcement was made yesterday that John H. Inman and his associates had bought the last of the 47,500 shares of Tennessee Coal and Iron stock acquired by H. P. DeBorde, and that the Tennessee coal and iron company of his properties, the coal sale covered 13,000 shares and the price paid is understood to be about 15. Mr. DeBorde's offer will never sever his connection with the company, but will occupy a salaried place.
